JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

NATIONAL EXPENDITURES.

Every day there is a presentation of some sort intended to show that there has been a great reduction in the expenditures of the government since Grant became President, accompanied with much boasting about the honesty and economy of the present administration.

Will the men who are engaged in this business tell in what department economical reforms have been introduced, and how the expenditure have been lessened? How much less will the war and navy departments and civil and diplomatic service cost the current fiscal year than they did for the year ending on the last day of June?

While vaporing about reduction of expenditures, a mellifluous attention should be paid to the cause permitting the reduction. To attribute it to retrenchment in the different departments, is a deliberate attempt to deceive, and is gross misrepresentation. Mr. McCulloch was called on, as secretary of the treasury, to make heavy payment for purposes which were accomplished when the payments were made, and which do not recur under Mr. Boutwell's administration. There were heavy payments for bounties; the payment for the purchase of Alaska; payments on account of the freedmen's bureau; payments on account of reconstruction; large sums for the payment of interest on the public debt than Mr. Boutwell has been obliged to meet; and heavier payments on account of the army.

The present administration may show something of a reduction in army and navy expenses, but the republican party, or rather, Congress and Grant, must be held responsible for maintaining an army five times as large as it was in 1860 for several years after the close of the war. President Johnson said the cost of maintaining military governments in the South was of itself a sufficient reason for a total condemnation of the reconstruction infamy.

He wanted to cut the army down, but was opposed by Grant and Congress. They wanted a large standing army to carry out their revolutionary purposes, and in case of defeat in the Presidential election to employ the army on some pretext for resisting the installation of a Democratic President. It was the duty of Grant, as General, as it is now the duty of Sherman, to recommend the reduction of the army to the lowest standard consistent with the public safety. Whatever reduction of expenditures may be shown in the War Department, is simply an evidence of the iniquity of Grant and Congress in expending more than was necessary under the administration of Johnson.

A comparison of the ordinary expenses of the Government in the last year of Johnson's administration with those under Grant will show that there has been no such reduction as the Republican newspapers claim. The whole amount of expenditures has been at a less rate, because of the payments by Mr. McCulloch for the objects above named. To say that the reduction has been on account of economical reforms introduced, and that these have saved to the country $40,000,000, is contemptible demagogism and falsehood.

Grant has spent the summer at racecourses and watering places. Secretary Fish has been taking his ease, with dignity, at his home on the Hudson. Secretary Rawlins gave more attention to the duties of his office than his health would permit, and, probably, did materially reduce the expenses of the war department, inasmuch as that department under Grant and Stanton was a rotten concern. Boutwell and Creswell have been busy in looking after Jacobinical interests in Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Texas. Attorney General Hoar has been rusticating in Massachusetts. Secretary Robeson turned a war steamer into a pleasure yacht, and has been recruiting his health by a long cruise in northern waters.

It is a notorious fact that this country has never before had a president and cabinet who gave so little time to their official duties as Grant and his cabinet. They have, in fact, by the desertion of their posts, and diligent hunting after ease and amusement, said to the people of the country that the president and heads of the departments had no duties to perform. Notwithstanding this, we are told that they have been hard at work in planning and carrying out reforms which are saving the government fabulous sums every month.

The truth is, that a more rotten administration than the present one, or more contemptuous of its duties, and with less regard for the public interests, has never been saddled on this country. The ordinary expenses of the government, according to Boutwell's own showing, are more than double what they ought to be, and every journalist of the ruling party knows this to be a fact.—Chicago Times.

CHANGE IN THE CUBAN ARMY.—The New York Journal of Commerce learns from a gentleman who is in a position to know what is going on among the Cuban revolutionists, that an important change has been made in the command of the liberating army. Gen. Cespedes, president of the Cuban republic, has taken the field in person as commander of all the forces, and Gen. Jordan, who recently held that position, is made chief of Cespedes' staff. The editor says:

"This strengthens the revolutionary cause by securing General Jordan's valuable services in a place where they will all still be available, while it appeals with fresh power to the patriotism and pride of the Cubans. To give the chief command of the insurgents to a foreigner—although that foreigner is an American and a soldier of great talents—seemed to imply a want of military skill among the Cubans themselves, which prejudiced some people against them. But few expeditions have been able to get away from the United States ports since General Jordan took the command, and the Cubans have been obliged to depend, for the most part, upon themselves."

THE LOUISIANA SUGAR CROP.—Great complaints are made in some parts of the parish of the smallness and backwardness of the cane. A few planters will make as much sugar to the hand as they made last year, some as high as ten hogsheads and even more, but many who expected to make heavy crops will hardly pay expenses. The scarcity of hands on the large plantations is a serious drawback to their crops and their success. Many were unable to lay by their crops in a condition that would secure more than half the yield that good cultivation would have secured.—Planter's Banner, 18th.

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9 and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1869.

HUNG IN THE WOODS.

Wright Woods (colored) lived on the waters of Little River, in Orange County. There is a pretty white girl in the neighborhood, who has many beaux and admirers. Wright Woods had made his threats, that he intended to force her into compliance with his brutish wishes, when the white men of the neighborhood were all gone to the State Fair at Raleigh, in October.

On Monday night, the 6th of September, four mounted men appeared where Wright Woods was burning a coal-kiln, in company with his father. Wright was taken off, and nothing was heard of him until Sunday, the 12th, when a neighbor, attracted by the flight and fluttering of buzzards, approached and found these foul birds preying upon the dead body of Wright Woods. To his foot was attached the following note:

"If the law will not protect virtue, the rope will."

We want words to express our condemnation of the act.

A neighbor informs us that the mother of the girl, who is a widow lady, wrote the Governor, asking for protection and advice in the premises. The letter was unanswered. We have no idea the Governor received the letter; for he was born in Orange and is no brute, though a man of the most infamous political record on this Continent, not excepting Brownlow, for Brownlow is neither a liar nor a coward. Weary, the Governor did not receive the letter, or he would have taken action in the matter. When mounted Ku Klux rode in front of Mr. Henry Badham's house, at Graham, and about the same time attempted to punish a negro who had put his hands in lust upon a white lady, the Governor sent Capt. Booker, in command of militia, to their protection.

If the Governor had received the letter, he might have sent Rev. Pilgrim Ashley or Rev. Brewer, of Chapel Hill, to use moral suasion with Wright Woods and teach him the danger and impropriety of his course. We heard last winter of a smoke house being robbed. The President of the League had the meat restored to its proper owner. Ashley or Brewer, by a lecture to the Little River League, would surely have a good effect, the negroes who obey and follow their advice in political matters, would certainly listen to them in matters pertaining to moral duty. If these two political Divines could persuade themselves that the negroes needed moral as well as political teachings, give the one and omit the other, it would be better for themselves, the negroes and the country. If the humble President of a country League meeting, could have stolen meat restored to the owner, surely Ashley and Brewer could persuade a brother Leaguer that it was improper to put his brutish hands upon a lady, or even to talk about it.

Within the last few years the crime which Wright Woods threatened has been frequently attempted in Orange and other counties of the State.

There is a member of the League now in Orange jail for an attempt at rape upon a child of thirteen.

Two years ago Judge Cilley, riding the Circuit, a member of the League was convicted and sentenced to death, for committing a rape in Orange. The convict broke jail and escaped.

A negro put his hands upon the wife of one of our neighbors, in orange, when the husband had gone out at night to gather his fodder; a little girl blowing the horn brought the husband in haste to the house and thus the wife was saved. We know that men with young wives and small children feared to leave their wives at night while they went out to gather fodder, lest some Wright Woods should visit in their absence.

A most brutal outrage was committed last year in Edgcombe upon the person of a white girl by a black member of the League. When Judge Fowle rode the Orange Circuit, last a negro was tried before him in Alamance. Since the surrender there is hardly a county from the sea shore to the pilot mountain, that has not been the scene of outrages such as were threatened by Wright Woods. We could not justify a mob in hanging, where the act has been committed, much less where it was only meditated and threatened. It is common everywhere except in North Carolina, to hang negroes who commit such crimes as Wright Woods threatened. Recently in Illinois one was hanged by the mob. In North Carolina it is common to give them a jury trial. The law punishing attempts at rape has undergone material changes.—Until the coming of carpet baggers and the organization of Leagues, such crimes were rare among us; a change and modification on the punishment has brought with it constant repetition of the horrid crime.

The carpet baggers have introduced into our Legislature the Northern system of bribery and corruption. By repealing and modifying the law for attempt at rape they have made this rare and horrid crime one of frequent occurrence in the whole South. Thank God, the reign of carpet baggers and their base allies is over at the next election. If the people know what is best they will patiently bear what is put upon them until the coming of the election, then they can once again take their own affairs into their own hands, and command Holden and his "militia" to quit forging on the public and go to work.

CRIME, AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE CRIMINAL LAWS.

Crime and outrage are rife in this State. It may be safely said that in many localities there is no reasonable safety for life or property. Crimes of the most bloody and terrible character are perpetrated, and the perpetrators of these crimes go unwhipt of justice. Public justice is so badly administered as to make it almost a mockery; the Judges are incompetent men; some of them grossly ignorant, and others corrupt and not disposed to do their duty. A citizen is murdered; a mockery of a trial is sometimes gone through with; the guilty party escapes, either by acquittal or pardon at the hands of the Governor, or by breaking out of prisons on purpose insecurely kept.

The truth is, the laws are scarcely administered at all, by reason of the imbecility and corruption of the State authorities. The State government is emphatically a mockery. Instead of proceeding to execute the law according to law, and with a firm and impartial hand, the Governor, from day to day and from week to week, by an empty proclamation, or through the editorial columns of his "official organ," threatens the people with his "loil" militia; instead of catching the guilty men he sends his "loil" militia, composed of "loil leaguers" out to hunt and make war upon the "Ku Klux," and all who are not "loil league" men are treated as "Ku Klux."—This plan of annoying and oppressing the people has been practiced until it has excited the contempt, derision and condemnation of even the Radicals. The militia go out to Jones county, for example, they see no Ku Klux, do nothing for weeks but spend money and annoy and distress the people, return, and on the way home, kill one another. This is true, as the people and the Governor know. How ridiculously contemptible! How impotent and contemptible such a Governor!

The only way for the Governor to get along is, to become the Governor of North Carolina, and cease to be the Governor of the "loil Leagues;" he must cry out against the "loil Leagues" as well as against the "Ku Klux;" he must admonish the Judges to administer justice impartially and with firmness; he must see that those convicted of crimes are made to suffer the penalty of the law; he must cease to grant pardons to "loil Leaguers" after they have been convicted of outrageous crimes, indeed, in some cases before they are convicted; he must give the "loil Leagues" to understand that they must disband as well as the "Ku Klux."

How can he expect to have the moral support of the people, while he continues to be the upholder of the 'loil leagues," and makes war for the leagues upon the ku klux! He can't put down the ku klux, until he puts down his leagues; the leagues gave rise to the ku klux; he is at the head of these leagues, and the people know it.—The leagues are the engines of crime in the State; leaguers are the authors of three fourths of the crimes perpetrated; they provoke the ku klux to crime, and the ku klux, in turn provoke them to crime, and so we go, from bad to worse. We tell the Governor, we shall have no tolerable administration of right and justice, and especially criminal justice, until he adopts and acts upon the line of action we suggest. He must cease to be the Governor of the "loil leagues," and cease to serve the "Ring," and become the Governor of the State. But he won't do this, he is too bitter, too partisan, too narrow-minded. He never, once, thought or felt the impulse of a Statesman in his life! "When the wicked bear rule, the people mourn."

STATE vs. THE PRINCES AND McKINLEY.

As an illustration of the administration of criminal justice in this State, we call attention to the case of William Prince, George Prince and John McKinley. The facts are, that Wm. Prince, aided by George Prince and McKinley, murdered, in the most savage and premeditated manner, a man whose name we could not get from the report of the case, in the County of Cherokee, at some time during the last Fall or Winter. We learn that the murder was of the most shocking and brutal character. The guilty parties were arrested and put on their trial for wilful murder at the last Spring term of the Cherokee Superior Court, before Judge Cannon. On the trial, the prisoners proposed to examine each for the other; the Judge held that they had a right to such examination.—The Solicitor for the State, a Mr. Henry, accepted the ruling of the Judge, and prayed an appeal to the Supreme Court; the Judge withdrew a juror, directed a mistrial and allowed the State to appeal! As soon as the jury were discharged, the Counsel for the prisoners moved that they be absolutely discharged, on the ground that they could not be put on their trial again for the same offence, that under the Constitution they could not twice be put in jeopardy of their lives. The Judge refused this motion; the prisoners appealed to the Supreme Court, and at the last term of that Court, it held that the prisoners must be discharged on the ground taken by the Counsel in the Court in Cherokee, and the murderers have been discharged without any trial, conviction or punishment, and that, too, by reason of the stupidity, criminal ignorance and corruption of a Radical Judge.

We learn that the murder was horrible in its details, and that there has been great indignation manifested among the people of Cherokee County. Here are three bloody murderers turned loose by a Radical Court, in the way we have stated.

If this Judge did this thing through ignorance and stupidity—(this hardly seems possible)—he ought to be impeached for such imbecility; if he did it through corrupt motives, he ought to be impeached, and so, he ought to be impeached any how; the people, even the Radicals, if they have any self respect, ought to demand his impeachment.

We learn that these bloody and cold blooded murderers are "loil leaguers," the Judge is a "loil leaguer," and so is the Solicitor. This Judge is one man who spells "January" and "June" with a G, and bankruptcy with a capital K in the middle.—But is it likely the Judge and Soliciter were both so steeped in ignorance as not to know better than to so turn loose these murderers upon the people of Cherokee County? Is it not fair to attribute such conduct to another cause?

This case is reported in 2, Phillips' Reports, page 529.

The people ought to look to this shameful and criminal outrage.

For the Sentinel.

The University and the Public (Schools—No. 4.)

(CONCLUDED.)

The act establishing the Cornell University was passed in the Senate of New York, on the 22nd day of March, 1865, in the Assembly on the 21st day of April following, and was approved by the Governor on the 27th day of the same month. It provides that the Institution shall annually receive one student for each Assembly District of the State, free of tuition fees, or any incidental charges, except such as may be made to compensate for damages headlessly or purposely done by the students to the property of the University. These students are selected in consideration of their superior ability, and as a reward for superior scholarship in the Academies and Public Schools of the State. The following rules are observed in their selection:

The School Commissioner or Commissioners of each county, and the Board of Education of each city, or those performing the duties of such a Board, select annually the best scholar from each Academy and each Public School of their respective counties or cities, as candidates for the University scholarship. The candidates thus selected meet at such time and place as the Board of Supervisors appoint, and are examined by a Board, consisting of the school Commissioner or Commissioners of the county, or the Board of Education of the cities, with such other persons as the supervisors appoint, who determine the best scholars. From these the Board of Supervisors select the number of one for each Assembly District in such county or city, and furnish the candidate thus selected with a certificate of such selection, which entitles him to admission to the University free of charge, subject to the examination and approval of the Faculty.

The cost of tuition at this Institution is $10 for each Trimester, or $30 per annum.

The University of Kentucky embraces several Colleges, each under the immediate government of its own Faculty and Presiding Officer. The general supervision of the University, as a whole, is committed to the Regent, who is elected from among the Curators. The Colleges of the University are severally style:—

1. The College of Science, Literature and the arts.
2. The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky.
3. The College of the Bible.
4. The Normal College.
5. The College of Law.
6. The College of Medicine.

Each of these is divided into several Schools or Departments of Study, and each of these Departments is under the immediate control of a Professor, assisted when necessary by subordinate Instructors and Tutors.

In the College of the Bible, tuition is entirely free to all. In each of the other Colleges, which are organized, except that of Law, the annual cost of tuition is $30.

The act of the Legislature establishing the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky as one of the Colleges of the University, provides that each Representative District in the State, may send to that College, free of charge for tuition, three properly prepared students for each member the District is entitled to send to the General Assembly. Such students also have the right to receive, free of charge for tuition, the benefit of the instruction given in any College of the University, except those of Law and Medicine and the Commercial School. The young men who enjoy these privileges are selected by a majority of the Justices of the Peace in the several Districts, from whom they receive certificates. The authorities earnestly recommend to the Justices to select a Board of Teachers in each District for the examination of applicants, and to institute a system of competition examinations, thus giving all, even the humblest youth, a chance for this State honor.

To the University of Virginia, one student is admitted from each Senatorial District of the State, free of matriculation and tuition fees and rents. This privilege, however, is meant to be restricted to those who are not themselves, and whose parents are not, able to bear the expense of their education at the institution, without aid. These State students are appointed by the Faculty upon satisfactory testimonials of fitness.—By way of remuneration to the State for the aid thus afforded them, they are required, on admission to sign an engagement to teach for two years after leaving the University, in some of the private or public schools of the State. Ministers of the gospel are allowed to attend any of the schools of the University, without payment of fees to the Professors; and the same privilege is extended conditionally to young men preparing for the ministry.

At the University of our own State, the cost of tuition is $40 per annum, and the Trustees have offered all the benefits of the institution, free of charge, to as many residents in the State as there are members of the most numerous branch of the General Assembly. North Carolina has not been surpassed in liberality in this respect by her more opulent sisters.

The University of North Carolina has been placed at the head of the public schools of the State. Time will be required to perfect our educational system, the general features of which are set forth in the Constitution. These schools cannot be opened without teachers. They should only be taught by first class instructors.—These must be educated in our own State, or they must be sought and obtained from abroad. It was proper first to open the University, with a department of normal instruction, and this has been done. Streams take their rise and flow down from their fountain head to invigorate and enliven the plains. Light radiates from its central luminary.

I am not inclined to conceal my real name, nor have I feared to disclose my real views upon this most important subject. All our people should be educated, whether they design to pursue the learned professions or to engage in the honorable labor of the "corn-field and cotton-patch." "We must have men to make bread," but these should not be denied the blessings of intellectual and moral culture.

A calm and dispassionate interchange of views among the friends of education, will go far towards awakening an interest in the popular mind, and doubtless result in the common good. If these brief communications, which have been written with all courtesy, have done no more than to attract the attention and elicit an expression of opinion from a few upon this great subject of our educational interests, one purpose of the author has been accomplished.

During the decade beginning with the year 1808, the University of North Carolina recorded 715 matriculates and 110 graduates. Beginning with the year 1818, there were 1 308 matriculates and 359 graduates; with the year 1828, there were 1,005 matriculates and 146 graduates; with the year 1838, there were 1,597 matriculates and 308 graduates; with the year 1848, there were 2 923 matriculates and 448 graduates; with the year 1858, there were 1,872 matriculates and 410 graduates, making a grand total of nearly 10,000 matriculates.

During the period of twenty years, beginning with June, 1849, nearly one thousand of these were my College mates, and above three thousand have been my pupils. Many of these who were dear to me in life's spring time and whose increasing usefulness I watched with anxious and affectionate interest, now rest quietly in their graves. Their names are on the record which lies before me, and their memory is yet pleasant as the fragrance of flowers fresh fallen. Many still survive, and from them scattered all over the land, come frequent letters of congratulation and cordial greeting. One of these who fought bravely in the Southern army during the late war, writes from a Northern State, "No one entering upon a field of duty so conscientiously as yourself, need have any fear of ultimate success; and I am sure the University is far better off than when it was first put into operation after the revolutionary war, and, I should judge, the State authorities intend it shall prosper. With my best wishes for your success, &c."—Another from the far South, "I hope, my dear sir, you have not forgotten me, as I entertain a most distinct and pleasant memory both of yourself and your classroom. Many of my class mates were killed near me in the army of Virginia, and I, myself, am writing to you with my left hand, having had my right arm amputated at the shoulder joint at the battle of Gettysburg. T—, E—, and J—, are near me and doing well. J— lost his left arm in the war. My brother, W—, is entirely well (though wounded in the war) and would join me in kindest wishes for you." And a class-mate writes, "The University must be made a great power for good. Of its final success in your hands, I have no doubt; not however without opposition. The press will growl, prejudices will be excited, ridicule attempted. But I trust that in the genuine spirit of the great Apostle, you may truly say, none of these things move me." And from another class mate, and intimate associate in the morning of our youth, now filling a position of usefulness and honor in Delaware. And recently from a College mate, a minister of the gospel, residing in a sister State, quoting in his letter to me a prayer he had just been offering in his closet for the success and prosperity of the University. And from central and eastern and western North Carolina, come these messages full of hope and encouragement. I linger yet at the old homestead, to watch and care for our common mother. And the day will yet be, when her thousands of scattered sons will send happy greetings, or return with glad hearts to rekindle the fires of their youthful aspirations, their love of virtue and liberty and science at the shrine of their alma mater.

A. NORTH CAROLINIAN.

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 21, 1869.

BAYONET RULE IN MISSISSIPPI.

All the commanders of military posts in Mississippi and their subordinate officers are instructed to treat the mandates of the Federal courts as well as of the State courts with contempt. They do treat them with contempt. And what do the courts do about it? Nothing. What does Chief Justice Chase say about it? Not a word. What evidences of general indignation does the country exhibit in regard to it? None whatever.

Yet it is an express provision of the Constitution that the processe is of the courts shall not be suspended except in case of war or of insurrections too formidable to be put down by the civil power. Well, is Mississippi invaded? No, unless by Gen. Ames's army. Is she invading any other State or power? No. Is there war within her limits or on her borders? No. Was there any obstruction to the execution of the laws in any part of her territory before military domination was established? No. Was there less law and order in Mississippi than in Massachusetts and Connecticut? No. Then why, why is the Mississippi Satrap instructed by his masters to seize and imprison citizens without charges preferred and to hold them in prison at will? Are not all the ideas that we ever formed of human freedom shocked and outraged by such proceedings?

The reason why these atrocious crimes against human freedom are committed is, as the Macon Messenger says, obvious, but its contemplation is fearful. The election is about to take place in Mississippi of officers of the State government and of Senators and Representatives in Congress. The people have manifested a fixed purpose to elect those who are opposed to the Radical party; and the present administration at Washington have resolved to defeat that purpose as prejudicial to their party interests. Mississippi must be saved to the Radicals "at any cost." It cannot be saved by legal means. Illegal, violent, corrupt, and iniquitous means must be employed, and, lest the people should dare to expose these illegal operations, they are warned beforehand that if they dare to do so they will be arrested, and that all hope of redress from the civil authorities shall be denied them. This is the only possible explanation of the order. There was no emergency to provoke it. There had been no recent collision between Ames and the Courts. It can be only, therefore, a precautionary step to facilitate the defeat of the popular will and the Radicalization of the government of the State.

Will the iniquity be crowned with success? We do not believe that it will. A larger army than has been sent to Mississippi would, in our opinion, be necessary to subjugate that State to Radicalism. We are confident that the tyrannies of the administration will add to the magnitude of the Conservative victory.—Courier Journal.

Col. Stewart, of Rome, Ga., with the consent of Mr. Stephens, has prepared for publication a pamphlet of correspondence between Mr. A. H. Stephens, himself and others, mainly in reference to the character of the Government of the United States, the impolicy of secession, and the necessity of restoration.

Kentucky has an easily worked quarry. Spontaneous blasts takes place where no holes have been drilled and no powder used. The detonation is very loud, and the rocks are rent in a remarkable manner. So violent are these occurrences, that workmen cannot be induced to work in the rock, which is a species of marble.

"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable.

ALDERT SMEDES.

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular.

J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

"We shall introduce Davies' Bourdon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CLOSE, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.: DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.

Prof. WM A. OBERCHAIN, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUDGEN, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.

WARRENTON N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1856, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation.

J. E. DUDGEN.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juvenile, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance.

G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.

WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.

I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit.

J. H. FOY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1866.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable school publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller. The National First 2nd 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1866.

NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1866.

NATIONAL FIRST READER. We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1866

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, contrary to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully,
F. J. HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.

DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

J. M. ATKINSON,
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

State of North Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 28, 1868.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public.

JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1868.

SIR: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his opinion there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.

THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr. Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1869.

"Mr. Thos. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

The weather at Raleigh, N. C., as indicated by the Thermometer at the office of the North Carolina Land Company, Tucker Hall, September 27th:

9 A. M., 68. 3 P. M., 72.
12 M., 68.

New Advertisements.—Rock Island Factory—alluded to elsewhere.

Messrs. A. D. Royster & Bro., Confectioners, have every article in their line, of the very best. It would make one's mouth water, to step in and take a look at the nicest and luscious things they offer, and the beauty of it is, you can buy such a pile of "goodies" with such a small amount of money.

Our Young Friends, Gulley, Bynum & Co., at the new store with a new stock of goods carefully selected, are determined, by courteous, fair and liberal dealing, moderate prices, and strict attention to the wants of their customers, to build up a business in Raleigh. Their numerous friends will be glad to learn that they are doing first rate.

We call especial attention to the new Saddle and Harness establishment of Wm. B. Hutchings & Co., at S. H. Young's old stand, on Fayetteville Street. They have a large stock on hand, and are putting up new work to meet the demands of their customers.

At this season of the year persons are generally preparing to lay in their Fall and Winter supplies of clothing and other stores, necessary for life and comfort. Let them watch the advertising columns of the Sentinel, which will serve as a directory to guide them where such articles as they may want can be found, and where good bargains can be had. In these go a head days people have not time, as a general thing, to run all over a town or city, to look for an article they may want; they like to know where they can find it, and are apt to go right to the place after it.

Rock Island.—Mr. Calvin Scott, agent for the Rock Island Manufacturing Company, called at our office to day with specimens of the goods manufactured by the new firm of Young & Wilkes. See their advertisement. No one need want nicer or better goods than the specimens he exhibited.

Mr. Scott has an extensive acquaintance in the State, and was for many years the agent of the North Carolina Railroad Company at Charlotte. We wish him great success in his agency, and hope he will be able to place Rock Island Goods on the Shelves of Merchants who have not heretofore dealt in them.

Correction.—By an oversight, in an article in the Sentinel last week, the name of Henry Marchead was mentioned as "the father of the Rockingham Bar," instead of James Morehead.

Western Union Telegraph Company. We have been shown by B. W. Starke Esq. the efficient and popular manager of the Telegraph Office in this city, the new tariff of reduced rates, which this Company has adopted and which will go into operation on the 1st of October next.

This action reflects much credit upon the Company, as it shows a disposition to deal fairly and liberally with the public, and will doubtless prove of great advantage to all, especially our business men.

There is another fact in connection with this matter, one which gives the Company another claim to the patronage and commendation of the public; it is this, the adoption of this reduced tariff was a voluntary action, done without reference to competing lines.

Below we give specimens showing the difference between the new and old rates:

A message of ten words sent from Raleigh to

	Old rate, ad'l word.	Each	New rates.	Each ad'l word.
New York,	$1.75	12c.	$1.50	9c.
Boston,	2.25	23	1.85	12
Washington,	1.25	8	1 65	7
Baltimore,	1.30	9	1 05	7
Wilmington,	75	5	65	4
Charlotte,	1.25	8	75	5

The Revival.—The religious revival in the Churches of the city still continues.—The interest is much increased with the Baptist congregation. On Sunday, nine were received into the membership of that Church by Baptism. At the Methodist Church there was no reception of members, owing to the illness of the pastor, whose pulpit was occupied at morning and at night, by Rev. J. B. Bobbitt. The meetings will continue in both these Churches, perhaps, during the present week.

Cool.—Since the clearing up the little equinoctial "spit" we had during the latter part of last week, we have quite a change from summer to autumn weather, making fires and thick clothing decidedly comfortable. At the time of penning this, there is quite a frostish feeling in the outside atmosphere.

The Last Week.—We are requested by Dr. M. Berhhardt to say that his stay in Raleigh is positively limited to Saturday next, October 2nd, and that those who desire to avail themselves of his services must call before that time.

Ejected.—Mary Yarborough rented a room to Mary Harriss, some time ago—they "had words," yesterday, and Mary Y. got a warrant from Justice Adams, to put Mary H. out. After hearing the case, his Worship decided that Mary H. should "vamoose" the premises, and pay the cost of the warrant; all of which Mary H. said she would do, "with a great deal of pleasure."

How to Make that Pudding.—We write from memory the recipe, as follows:

Cook the "grits," by putting them in a bucket or other vessel, set this in a pot of water and boil until the grits are done.

For a pudding for six moderate pudding eaters—beat three eggs, add one and a half cups of sugar, half a cup of butter, one pint of milk, stir well together with one pint of the grits—flavor to taste—we like it with about a spoonful of essence of vanilla. It is very good; don't eat too much of it, nor take it too hot.

We give the above at the request of "A Subscriber," who is, no doubt, fond of making or of eating good things. The grits, of most excellent quality, white and clean, can be obtained of Mr. L. D. Womble, in front of the new Market House.

Improving.—Not a case of sending to jail yesterday. We hope those contemplating getting in jail for the sake of obtaining something to eat and a place to sleep in, will wait a few days. The jail is nearly full, but the Penitentiary stockade will be finished, probably, this week, and then the removing some of the convicts to labor at that locality, will make room for others who wish to enter upon probation for the same destination.

In Town.—Prof. Brewer, who speaks the language of Homer and Demosthenes with the same fluency and idiomatic accuracy as he does the Chaldaic or Sanscrit, was said to be in the city last night, and was seen walking down the street in company with Handy Locket, Esq., each with his spectacles on, and conversing on the flourishing present condition and flattering future prospects of the "University." We suspect there have been works of supererogation accomplished by the Greek class over which the Professor exercises supervision, and that all hands have taken a holiday.

GENERAL NEWS.

Russia is about to introduce jury trials.

The young swells in Paris wear bracelets.

Saturday is the marrying day in Paris, when the marriages average about two hundred.

A project is on foot in Italy to cut a ship canal through the peninsula, between Rome and Ancona. The cost is estimated at $60,000,000.

The pickpocket fraternity are moving westward for the purpose of attending the Provincial Fair being held in Canada.

A Hungarian giant as who was lately married charged an admission fee to the church when she was married. The house was filled.

The Executive Committee of the St. Louis National Capital Convention has written to Horace Greeley, inquiring if he will preside over the convention.

William Blaikie, the Harvard oarsman in the recent international boat race, has been appointed Pardoning Clerk in the Attorney General's office at Washington.

Georgia has a colored magistrate who recently adjourned his court until September 31.

Fifteen dentists of St. Louis are being prosecuted for an infringement of the patent of Nelson Goodyear, the great India-rubber man.

The report of the murder of twenty Christian missionaries in China, is contradicted.

London has 24,000 streets, 6,000 of which are counted "business streets."

Kentucky has a serpent thirty feet long and four feet thick.

Sensible.—The universalists are going to celebrate the centennial of their existence in this country, which occurs next year, in a very sensible way, indeed. Every church connected with their organization is to pay off all its debts by that day.

New-fashioned dress-coats are made with deep velvet collar, and invariably with large gilt buttons of the genuine 1776 style.

Highway Robbery in New York.—Chas. M. Simonson, paymaster of the Harlem Railroad Company, was knocked down and robbed in New York on Thursday morning of $10,000, which he had just drawn from the bank to pay off the employees of the road. The robbers were three in number, and on securing their booty jumped into a butcher's cart and escaped.

The Mayor of Philadelphia offers $1,500 reward for the men who attempted to kill Brooks, the revenue detective.

The Countess Guiccoli replies to Mrs Stowe's article on the Byron scandal.—Madame la Countess pretends to be in constant communication with the spirit of Lord Byron, and she was informed by the poet two years ago that "an American author was preparing to write on his life a book full of false and horrible things."—Now if somebody would ask Lady Byron we could get both sides of the story. But the matter is about settled already.

It is stated that the city of Havana, before the revolt of Yara, claimed 250,000 inhabitants. There are now, at the very outside figure, no more than 80,000 people there—Thousands of Spanish merchants and traders have fled to Spain. Thousands of wealthy Cubans have gone to New York, New Orleans, Baltimore, Mexico and Europe, while very many thousands of Cubans have drifted into the interior to join the Cuban army. Not only have men gone, but at least 15,000 ladies have also left Havana for different towns of the interior. It is estimated that there are now 10,000 empty houses in the city.

A Boston chemist advertises thus: "The gentleman who left his stomach for analysis, will please call and get it together with the results."

Delaware is a small State and is growing smaller. The Delaware encroaches upon it four to twenty feet every year, and the sites of houses that once stood in the midst of fields are now under water. The Lighthouse near Bowers' Beach has been removed three times, and a small hotel on the same beach that once stood in the midst of cultivated grounds a considerable distance from the bay with large trees in front of it, has its walls now washed by the waters.

Shooting in Kinston.—Wm. White an old resident of Kinston, went to his cotton house Thursday night, where he found several men, whom he thinks were colored, stealing his cotton. As soon as he made his appearance they shot at him, and thirty seven shots entered his body, but as yet he is living and may recover. We are informed, and are sorry to learn it, that up to this time Sheriff Hunter has made no attempts to ferret out the perpetrators of the foul deed.—Newbern Times.

If he should come to the Senate, he desires to come as the chosen Representative of the Legislature for Virginia.

New York, Sept 27.—Admiral Poor has departed for Key West, in the "Powhattan."

The Supreme Court issued a number of injunctions against the Gold Exchange Bank, and several Wall Street Brokers.

The dead lock in the Gold Exchange Bank continues and caused much embarrassment. There were no transactions in the Gold Board in consequence, and after ineffectually endeavoring to obtain statements of Thursday's and Friday's business from the Gold Exchange, the Bank Board adjourned until to-morrow:

Several injunctions have been issued by the Courts restraining the Gold Exchange Bank from paying over deposits and checks which tend to complicate affairs and retard settlements. Suits have been commenced by attachments against Alexander Bolldin, Alexander McKinley and G. W. Hooker for secreting property to defraud creditors.

Chas. Callider, National Bank Examiner, declares that every National Bank in the city, including the Tenth National Bank are sound and Conservatively managed.

The money market became much easier in the afternoon, and at close of call loans were freely supplied at 7, currency to gold. Gold quotations during the stoppage of the Board, are more or less nominal; Street prices during the day varied from 1,31½ to 1,35, closing at 34 to 35. Exchange quiet and firm, but quotations nominal at 8. Stocks improved at first with the easiness of money, but closed lower and unsettled.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS. H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 599 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,257 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1869.

HUNG IN THE WOODS.

Wright Woods (colored) lived on the waters of Little River, in Orange County. There is a pretty white girl in the neighborhood, who has many beaux and admirers. Wright Woods had made his threats, that he intended to force her into compliance with his brutish wishes, when the white men of the neighborhood were all gone to the State Fair at Raleigh, in October.

On Monday night, the 6th of September, four mounted men appeared where Wright Woods was farming a coal-kiln, in company with his father. Wright was taken off, and nothing was heard of him until Sunday, the 12th, when a neighbor, attracted by the flight and fluttering of buzzards, approached and found these foul birds preying upon the dead body of Wright Woods. To his foot was attached the following note:

"If the law will not protect virtue, the rope will."

We want words to express our condemnation of the act.

A neighbor informs us that the mother of the girl, who is a widow lady, wrote the Governor, asking for protection and advice in the premises. The letter was unanswered. We have no idea the Governor received the letter; for he was born in Orange and is no brute, though a man of the most infamous political record on this Continent, not excepting Brownlow, for Brownlow is neither a liar nor a coward. Wessy, the Governor did not receive the letter, or he would have taken action in the matter. When mounted Ku Klux rode in front of Mr. Henry Badham's house, at Graham, and about the same time attempted to punish a negro who had put his hands in lust upon a white lady, the Governor sent Capt. Booker, in command of militia, to their protection.

If the Governor had received the letter, he might have sent Rev. Pilgrim Ashley or Rev. Brewer, of Chapel Hill, to use moral suasion with Wright Woods and teach him the danger and impropriety of his course. We heard last winter of a smoke house being robbed. The President of the League had the meat restored to its proper owner. Ashley or Brewer, by a lecture to the Little River League, would surely have a good effect, the negroes who obey and follow their advice in political matters, would certainly listen to them in matters pertaining to moral duty. If these two political Divines could persuade themselves that the negroes needed moral as well as political teachings, give the one and omit the other, it would be better for themselves, the negroes and the country. If the humble President of a country League meeting, could have stolen meat restored to the owner, surely Ashley and Brewer could persuade a brother Leaguer that it was improper to put his brutish hands upon a lady, or even to talk about it.

Within the last few years the crime which Wright Woods threatened has been frequently attempted in Orange and other counties of the State.

There is a member of the League now in Orange jail for an attempt at rape upon a child of thirteen.

Two years ago Judge Cilley, riding the Circuit, a member of the League was convicted and sentenced to death, for committing a rape in Orange. The convict broke jail and escaped.

A negro put his hands upon the wife of one of our neighbors, in orange, when the husband had gone out at night to gather his fodder; a little girl blowing the horn brought the husband in haste to the house and thus the wife was saved. We know that men with young wives and small children feared to leave their wives at night while they went out to gather fodder, lest some Wright Woods should visit in their absence.

A most brutal outrage was committed last year in Edgcombe upon the person of a white girl by a black member of the League. When Judge Fowle rode the Orange Circuit, last a negro was tried before him for an attempt upon the person of a white lady. Two cases were tried before him in Alamance. Since the surrender there is hardly a county from the sea shore to the pilot mountain, that has not been the scene of outrages such as were threatened by Wright Woods. We could not justify a mob in hanging, where the act has been committed, much less where it was only manifested and threatened. It is common everywhere except in North Carolina, to hang negroes who commit such crimes as Wright Woods threatened. Recently in Illinois one was hanged by the mob. In North Carolina it is common to give them a jury trial. The law punishing attempts at rape had undergone material changes.—Until the coming of carpet baggers and the organization of Leagues, such crimes were rare among us; a change and modification of the punishment has brought with it constant repetition of the horrid crime.

The carpet baggers have introduced into our Legislature the Northern system of bribery and corruption. By repealing and modifying the law for attempt at rape they have made this rare and horrid crime one of frequent occurrence in the whole South. Thank God, the reign of carpet baggers and their base allies is over at the next election. If the people know what is best they will patiently bear what is put upon them until the coming of the election, then they can once again take their own affairs into their own hands, and command Holden and his "militia" to quit foraging on the public and go to work.

CRIME, AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE CRIMINAL LAWS.

Crime and outrage are rife in this State. It may be safely said that in many localities there is no reasonable safety for life or property. Crimes of the most bloody and terrible character are perpetrated, and the perpetrators of these crimes go unwhipt of justice. Public justice is so badly administered as to make it almost a mockery; the Judges are incompetent men; some of them grossly ignorant, and others corrupt and not disposed to do their duty. A citizen is murdered; a mockery of a trial is sometimes gone through with; the guilty party escapes, either by acquittal or pardon at the hands of the Governor, or by breaking out of prisons on purpose insecurely kept.

The truth is, the laws are scarcely administered at all, by reason of the imbecility and corruption of the State authorities. The State government is emphatically a mockery. Instead of proceeding to execute the law according to law, and with a firm and impartial hand, the Governor, from day to day and from week to week, by an empty proclamation, or through the editorial columns of his "official organ," threatens the people with his "loil" militia; instead of catching the guilty men he sends his "loil" militia, composed of "loil leaguers" out to hunt and make war upon the "Ku Klux," and all who are not "loil league" men are treated as "Ku Klux."—This plan of annoying and oppressing the people has been practiced until it has excited the contempt, derision and condemnation of even the Radicals. The militia go out to Jones county, for example, they see no Ku Klux, do nothing for weeks but spend money and annoy and distress the people, return, and on the way home, kill one another. This is true, as the people and the Governor know. How ridiculously contemptible! How impotent and contemptible such a Governor!

The only way for the Governor to get along is, to become the Governor of North Carolina, and cease to be the Governor of the "loil League," he must cry out against the "loil Leagues" as well as against the "Ku Klux;" he must admonish the Judges to administer justice impartially and with firmness; he must see that those convicted of crimes are made to suffer the penalty of the law; he must cease to grant pardons to "loil Leaguers" after they have been convicted of outrageous crimes, indeed, in some cases before they are convicted; he must give the "loil Leagues" to understand that they must disband as well as the "Ku Klux."

How can he expect to have the moral support of the people, while he continues to be the upholder of the "loil leagues," and make war for the leagues upon the ku klux! He can't put down the ku klux, until he puts down his leagues; the leagues gave rise to the ku klux; he is at the head of these leagues, and the people know it.—The leagues are the engines of crime in the State; leaguers are the authors of three fourths of the crimes perpetrated; they provoke the ku klux to crime, and the ku klux, in turn provoke them to crime, and so we go, from bad to worse. We tell the Governor, we shall have no tolerable administration of right and justice, and especially criminal justice, until he adopts and acts upon the line of action we suggest. He must cease to be the Governor of the "loil leagues," and cease to serve the "Ring," and become the Governor of the State. But he won't do this, he is too bitter, too partisan, too narrow-minded. He never, once, thought or felt the impulse of a Statesman in his life! "When the wicked bear rule, the people mourn."

STATE vs. THE PRINCES AND McKINLEY.

As an illustration of the administration of criminal justice in this State, we call attention to the case of William Prince, George Prince and John McKinley. The facts are, that Wm. Prince, aided by George Prince and McKinley, murdered, in the most savage and premeditated manner, a man whose name we could not get from the report of the case, in the County of Cherokee, at some time during the last Fall or Winter. We learn that the murder was of the most shocking and brutal character. The guilty parties were arrested and put on their trial for wilful murder at the last Spring term of the Cherokee Superior Court, before Judge Cannon. On the trial, the prisoners proposed to examine each for the other; the Judge held that they had a right to such examination.—The Solicitor for the State, a Mr. Henry, accepted the ruling of the Judge, and prayed an appeal to the Supreme Court; the Judge withdrew a juror, directed a mistrial and allowed the State to appeal! As soon as the jury were discharged, the Counsel for the prisoners moved that they be absolutely discharged, on the ground that they could not be put on their trial again for the same offence, that under the Constitution they could not twice be put in jeopardy of their lives. The Judge refused this motion; the prisoners appealed to the Supreme Court, and at the last term of that Court, it held that the prisoners must be discharged on the ground taken by the Counsel in the Court in Cherokee, and the murderers have been discharged without any trial, conviction or punishment, and that, too, by reason of the stupidity, criminal ignorance and corruption of a Radical Judge.

We learn that the murder was horrible in its details, and that there has been great indignation manifested among the people of Cherokee County. Here are three bloody murderers turned loose by a Radical Court, in the way we have stated.

If this Judge did this thing through ignorance and stupidity—(this hardly seems possible)—he ought to be impeached for such imbecility; if he did it through corrupt motives, he ought to be impeached; and so, he ought to be impeached any how; the people, even the Radicals, if they have any self respect, ought to demand his impeachment.

We learn that these bloody and cold blooded murderers are "loil leaguers," the Judge is a "loil leaguer," and so is the Solicitor. This Judge is the man who spells "January" and "June" with a G, and bankruptcy with a capital K in the middle.—But is it likely the Judge and Solicitor were both so steeped in ignorance as not to know better than to so turn loose these murderers upon the people of Cherokee County? Is it not fair to attribute such conduct to another cause?

This case is reported in 2, Phillips' Reports, page 529.

The people ought to look to this shameful and criminal outrage.

For the Sentinel.

(CONCLUDED.)

The act establishing the Cornell University was passed in the Senate of New York, on the 22nd day of March, 1865, in the Assembly on the 21st day of April following, and was approved by the Governor on the 27th day of the same month. It provides that the Institution shall annually receive one student for each Assembly District of the State, free of tuition fees, or any incidental charges, except such as may be made to compensate for damages heedlessly or purposely done by the students to the property of the University. These students are selected in consideration of their superior ability, and as a reward for superior scholarship in the Academies and Public Schools of the State. The following rules are observed in their selection:

The School Commissioner or Commissioners of each county, and the Board of Education of each city, or those performing the duties of such a Board, select annually the best scholar from each Academy and each Public School of their respective counties or cities, as candidates for the University scholarship. The candidates thus selected meet at such time and place as the Board of Supervisors appoint, and are examined by a Board, consisting of the school Commissioner or Commissioners of the county, or the Board of Education of the cities, with such other persons as the supervisors appoint, who determine the best scholars. From these the Board of Supervisors select the number of one for each Assembly District in such county or city, and furnish the candidate thus selected with a certificate of such selection, which entitles him to admission to the University free of charge, subject to the examination and approval of the Faculty.

The cost of tuition at this Institution is $10 for each Trimester, or $30 per annum.

The University of Kentucky embraces several Colleges, each under the immediate government of its own Faculty and Presiding Officer. The general supervision of the University, as a whole, is committed to the Regent, who is elected from among the Curators. The Colleges of the University are severally style: —

1. The College of Science, Literature and the arts.
2. The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky.
3. The College of the Bible.
4. The Normal College.
5. The College of Law.
6. The College of Medicine.

Each of these is divided into several Schools or Departments of Study, and each of these Departments is under the immediate control of a Professor, assisted when necessary by subordinate Instructors and Tutors.

In the College of the Bible, tuition is entirely free to all. In each of the other Colleges, which are organized, except that of Law, the annual cost of tuition is $30.

The act of the Legislature establishing the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky as one of the Colleges of the University, provides that each Representative District in the State, may send to that College, free of charge for tuition, three properly prepared students for each member the District is entitled to send to the General Assembly. Such students also have the right to receive, free of charge for tuition, the benefit of the instruction given in any College of the University, except those of Law and Medicine and the Commercial School. The young men who enjoy these privileges are selected by a majority of the Justices of the Peace in the several Districts, from whom they receive certificates. The authorities earnestly recommend to the Justices to select a Board of Teachers in each District for the examination of applicants, and to institute a system of competition examinations, thus giving all, even the humblest youth, a chance for this State honor.

To the University of Virginia, one student is admitted from each Senatorial District of the State, free of matriculation and tuition fees and rents. This privilege, however, is meant to be restricted to those who are not themselves, and whose parents are not, able to incur the expense of their education at the institution, without aid. These State students are appointed by the Faculty upon satisfactory testimonials of fitness.—By way of remuneration to the State for the aid thus afforded them, they are required, on admission to sign an engagement to teach for two years after leaving the University, in some of the private or public schools of the State. Ministers of the gospel are allowed to attend any of the schools of the University, without payment of fees to the Professors; and the same privilege is extended conditionally to young men preparing for the ministry.

At the University of our own State, the cost of tuition is $40 per annum, and the Trustees have offered all the benefits of the institution, free of charge, to as many residents in the State as there are members of the most numerous branch of the General Assembly. North Carolina has not been surpassed in liberality in this respect by her more opulent sisters.

The University of North Carolina has been placed at the head of the public schools of the State. Time will be required to perfect our educational system, the general features of which are set forth in the Constitution. These schools cannot be opened without teachers. They should only be taught by first class instructors.—These must be educated in our own State, or they must be sought and obtained from abroad. It was proper first to open the University, with a department of normal instruction, and this has been done. Streams take their rise and flow down from their fountain head to invigorate and enliven the plains. Light radiates from its central luminary.

I am not inclined to conceal my real name, nor have I feared to disclose my real views upon this most important subject. All our people should be educated, whether they design to pursue the learned professions or to engage in the honorable labor of the "corn-field and cotton-patch." "We must have men to make bread," but these should not be denied the blessings of intellectual and moral culture.

A calm and dispassionate interchange of views among the friends of education, will go far towards awakening an interest in the popular mind, and doubtless result in the common good. If these brief communications, which have been written with all courtesy, have done no more than to attract the attention and elicit an expression of opinion from a few upon this great subject of our educational interests, one purpose of the author has been accomplished.

During the decade beginning with the year 1806, the University of North Carolina recorded 715 matriculates and 136 graduates. Beginning with the year 1818, there were 1,508 matriculates and 259 graduates; with the year 1828, there were 1,005 matriculates and 146 graduates; with the year 1838, there were 1,597 matriculates and 308 graduates; with the year 1848, there were 2,923 matriculates and 448 graduates; with the year 1858, there were 1,872 matriculates and 410 graduates, making a grand total of nearly 10,000 matriculates.

During the period of twenty years, beginning with June, 1849, nearly one thousand of these were my College mates, and above three thousand have been my pupils. Many of these who were dear to me in life's spring time and whose increasing usefulness I watched with anxious and affectionate interest, now rest quietly in their graves. Their names are on the record which lies before me, and their memory is yet pleasant as the fragrance of flowers fresh fallen. Many still survive, and from them scattered all over the land, come frequent letters of congratulation and cordial greeting. One of these who fought bravely in the Southern army during the late war, writes from a Northern State, "No one entering upon a field of duty so conscientiously as yourself, need have any fear of ultimate success; and I am sure the University is far better off than when it was first put into operation after the revolutionary war, and, I should judge, the State authorities intend it shall prosper. With my best wishes for your success, &c."—Another from the far South, "I hope, my dear sir, you have not forgotten me, as I entertain a most distinct and pleasant memory both of yourself and your classroom. Many of my class mates were killed near me in the army of Virginia, and I, myself, am writing to you with my left hand, having had my right arm amputated at the shoulder joint at the battle of Gettysburg. T—, E—, and J—, are near me and doing well. J— lost his left arm in the war. My brother, W—, is entirely well (though wounded in the war) and would join me in kindest wishes for you." And a class-mate writes, "The University must be made a great power for good. Of its final success in your hands, I have no doubt; not however without opposition. The press will growl, prejudices will be excited, ridicule attempted. But I trust that in the genuine spirit of the great Apostle, you may truly say, none of these things move me." And from another class mate, and intimate associate in the morning of our youth, now filling a position of usefulness and honor in Delaware. And recently from a College mate, a minister of the gospel, residing in a sister State, quoting in his letter to me a prayer he had just been offering in his closet for the success and prosperity of the University. And from central and eastern and western North Carolina, come these messages full of hope and encouragement. I linger yet at the old home stead, to watch and care for our common mother. And the day will yet be, when her thousands of scattered sons will send happy greetings, or return with glad hearts to rekindle the fires of their youthful aspirations, their love of virtue and liberty and science at the shrine of their alma mater.

A. NORTH CAROLINIAN.

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 21, 1869.

BAYONET RULE IN MISSISSIPPI.

All the commanders of military posts in Mississippi and their subordinate officers are instructed to treat the mandates of the Federal courts as well as of the State courts with contempt. They do treat them with contempt. And what do the courts do about it? Nothing. What does Chief Justice Chase say about it? Not a word. What evidences of general indignation does the country exhibit in regard to it? None whatever.

Yet it is an express provision of the Constitution that the processe is of the courts shall not be suspended except in case of war or of insurrections too formidable to be put down by the civil power. Well, is Mississippi invaded? No, unless by Gen. Ames's army. Is she invading any other State or power? No. Is there war within her limits or on her borders? No. Was there any obstruction to the execution of the laws in any part of her territory before military domination was established? No. Was there less law and order in Mississippi than in Massachusetts and Connecticut? No. Then why, why is the Mississippi Satrap instructed by his masters to seize and imprison citizens without charges preferred and to hold them in prison at will? Are not all the ideas that we ever formed of human freedom shocked and outraged by such proceedings?

The reason why these atrocious crimes against human freedom are committed is, as the Macon Messenger says, obvious, but its contemplation is fearful. The election is about to take place in Mississippi of officers of the State government and of Senators and Representatives in Congress. The people have manifested a fixed purpose to elect those who are opposed to the Radical party; and the present administration at Washington have resolved to defeat that purpose as prejudicial to their party interests. Mississippi must be saved to the Radicals "at any cost." It cannot be saved by legal means. Illegal, violent, corrupt, and infamous means must be employed, and, lest the people should dare to expose these illegal operations, they are warned beforehand that if they dare to do so they will be arrested, and that all hope of redress from the civil authorities shall be denied them. This is the only possible explanation of the order. There was no emergency to provoke it. There had been no recent collision between Ames and the Courts. It can be only, therefore, a precautionary step to facilitate the defeat of the popular will and the Radicalization of the government of the State.

Will the iniquity be crowned with success? We do not believe that it will. A larger army than has been sent to Mississippi would, in our opinion, be necessary to subjugate that State to Radicalism. We are confident that the tyrannies of the administration will add to the magnitude of the Conservative victory.—Courier Journal.

Col. Stewart, of Rome, Ga., with the consent of Mr. Stephens, has prepared for publication a pamphlet of correspondence between Mr. A. H. Stephens, himself and others, mainly in reference to the character of the Government of the United States, the impolicy of secession, and the necessity of restoration.

Kentucky has an easily worked quarry. Spontaneous blasts takes place where no holes have been drilled and no powder used. The detonation is very loud, and the rocks are rent in a remarkable manner. So violent are these occurrences, that workmen cannot be induced to work in the rock, which is a species of marble.

SNOW HILL, N. C.
"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no other when those could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.
RALEIGH, N. C.
I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable.
ALBERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:
GOLDSBORO', N. C.
I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular.
J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.
The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) to my judgment, a charming school book.
"We shall introduce Davies' Bourdon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.:
DURHAM, N. C.
I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition.
M. CLOSS.

From M. L. LITTLE, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.
NEWTON, N. C.
Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work.
M. L. LITTLE,
Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy N. C.:
AUBURN, N. C.
Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCEON IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. OBERCHAIN, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:
The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.
WARRENTON, N. C.
"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1856, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.
I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation.
J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.
I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.
MT. PLEASANT, N. C.
I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose.
With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.
In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance.
G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.
WILSON, N. C.
I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.
I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.
I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.
McNally's, the fifth book of the course is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit.
J. H. FOY.

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1866.
We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.
Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller, The National First 2nd 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Ophthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.
CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.
WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.
Very respectfully,
F. J HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.
W. H McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.
R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.
DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1866.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.
J. M. ATKINSON,
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 28, 1866.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1866.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.
Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.
THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr. Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he pretends.

Testimonials similar to the above may be seen at Dr. Bernhardt's office, from the most reliable and well-known gentlemen of the United States, among whom are:

New Advertisements.—Rock Island Factory—alluded to elsewhere.

Messrs. A. D. Royster & Bro., Confectioners, have every article in their line, of the very best. It would make one's mouth water, to step in and take a look at the sweet and luscious things they offer, and the beauty of it is, you can buy such a pile of "goodies" with such a small amount of money.

Our Young Friends, Gulley, Bynum & Co., at the new store with a new stock of goods carefully selected, are determined, by courteous, fair and liberal dealing, moderate prices, and strict attention to the wants of their customers, to build up a business in Raleigh. Their numerous friends will be glad to learn that they are doing first rate.

We call especial attention to the new Saddle and Harness establishment of Wm. B. Hutchings & Co., at S. H. Young's old stand, on Fayetteville Street. They have a large stock on hand, and are putting up new work to meet the demands of their customers.

At this season of the year persons are generally preparing to lay in their Fall and Winter supplies of clothing and other stores, necessary for life and comfort. Let them watch the advertising columns of the Sentinel, which will serve as a directory to guide them where such articles as they may want can be found, and where good bargains can be had. In these go a head days people have not time, as a general thing, to run all over a town or city, to look for an article they may want; they like to know where they can find it, and are apt to go right to the place after it.

Rock Island.—Mr. Calvin Scott, agent for the Rock Island Manufacturing Company, called at our office to day with specimens of the goods manufactured by the new firm of Young & Wilkes. See their advertisement. No one need want nicer or better goods than the specimens he exhibited.

Mr. Scott has an extensive acquaintance in the State, and was for many years the agent of the North Carolina Railroad Company at Charlotte. We wish him great success in his agency, and hope he will be able to place Rock Island Goods on the Shelves of Merchants who have not heretofore dealt in them.

Connection.—By an oversight, in an article in the Sentinel last week, the name of Henry Morehead was mentioned as "the father of the Rockingham Bar," instead of James Morehead.

Western Union Telegraph Company. We have been shown by B. W. Starke Esq. the efficient and popular manager of the Telegraph Office in this city, the new tariff of reduced rates, which this Company has adopted and which will go into operation on the 1st of October next.

This action reflects much credit upon the Company, as it shows a disposition to deal fairly and liberally with the public, and will doubtless prove of great advantage to all, especially our business men.

There is another fact in connection with this matter, one which gives the Company another claim to the patronage and commendation of the public; it is this, the adoption of this reduced tariff was a voluntary action, done without reference to competing lines.

Below we give specimens showing the difference between the new and old rates:

A message of ten words sent from Raleigh to

	Old rate.	Each add'l word.	New rates.	Each add'l word.
New York,	$1.75	12c.	$1.30	9c
Boston,	2.35	23	1.85	12
Washington,	1.25	8	1.05	7
Baltimore,	1.30	9	1.05	7

The Revival.—The religious revival in the Churches of the city still continues.—The interest is much increased with the Baptist congregation. On Sunday, nine were received into the membership of that Church by Baptism. At the Methodist Church there was no reception of members, owing to the illness of the pastor, whose pulpit was occupied at morning and at night, by Rev. J. B. Bobbitt. The meetings will continue in both these Churches, perhaps, during the present week.

Coal.—Since the clearing up the little equinoctial "spit" we had during the latter part of last week, we have quite a change from summer to autumn weather, making fires and thick clothing decidedly comfortable. At the time of penning this, there is quite a frostish feeling in the outside atmosphere.

The Last Week.—We are requested by Dr. M. Berhhardt to say that his stay in Raleigh is positively limited to Saturday next, October 2nd, and that those who desire to avail themselves of his services must call before that time.

Ejected.—Mary Yarborough rented a room to Mary Harriss, some time ago—they "had words," yesterday, and Mary Y. got a warrant from Justice Adams, to put Mary H. out. After hearing the case, his Worship decided that Mary H. should "vamoose" the premises, and pay the cost of the warrant; all of which Mary H. said she would do, "with a great deal of pleasure."

How to Make that Pudding.—We write from memory the recipe, as follows:

Cook the "grits," by putting them in a bucket or other vessel, set this in a pot of water and boil until the grits are done.

For a pudding for six moderate pudding eaters—beat three eggs, add one and a half cups of sugar, half a cup of butter, one pint of milk, stir well together with one pint of the grits—flavor to taste—we like it with about a spoonful of essence of vanilla. It is very good; don't eat too much of it, nor take it too hot.

We give the above at the request of "A Subscriber," who is, no doubt, fond of making or of eating good things. The grits, of most excellent quality, white and clean, can be obtained of Mr. L. D. Womble, in front of the new Market House.

Improving.—Not a case of sending to jail yet to-day. We hope those contemplating getting in jail for the sake of obtaining something to eat and a place to sleep in, will wait a few days. The jail is nearly full, but the Penitentiary stockade will be finished, probably, this week, and then the removing some of the convicts to labor at that locality, will make room for others who wish to enter upon probation for the same destination.

In Town.—Prof. Brewer, who speaks the language of Homer and Demosthenes with the same fluency and idiomatic accuracy as he does the Chaldaic or Sanscrit, was said to be in the city last night, and was seen walking down the street in company with Handy Locket, Esq., each with his spectacles on, and conversing on the flourishing present condition and flattering future prospects of the "University." We suspect there have been works of supererogation accomplished by the Greek class over which the Professor exercises supervision, and that all hands have taken a holiday.

GENERAL NEWS.

Russia is about to introduce jury trials.

The young swells in Paris wear bracelets.

Saturday is the marrying day in Paris, when the marriages average about two hundred.

A project is on foot in Italy to cut a ship canal through the peninsula, between Rome and Ancona. The cost is estimated at $60,000,000.

William Blaikie, the Harvard oarsman in the recent international boat race, has been appointed Pardoning Clerk in the Attorney General's office at Washington.

Georgia has a colored magistrate who recently adjourned his court until September 31.

The report of the murder of twenty Christian missionaries in China, is contradicted.

London has 24,000 streets, 6,000 of which are counted "business streets."

Kentucky has a serpent thirty feet long and four feet thick.

Sensible.—The universalists are going to celebrate the centennial of their existence in this country, which occurs next year, in a very sensible way, indeed. Every church connected with their organization is to pay off all its debts by that day.

New-fashioned dress-coats are made with deep velvet collar, and invariably with large gilt buttons of the genteel 1776 style.

Highway Robbery in New York.—Chas. M. Simonson, paymaster of the Harlem Railroad Company, was knocked down and robbed in New York on Thursday morning of $10,000, which he had just drawn from the bank to pay off the employees of the road. The robbers were three in number, and on securing their booty jumped into a butcher's cart and escaped.

The Mayor of Philadelphia offers $1,500 reward for the man who attempted to kill Brooks, the revenue detective.

The Countess Guiccoli replies to Mrs Stowe's article on the Byron scandal.—Madame la Countess pretends to be in constant communication with the spirit of Lord Byron, and she was informed by the poet two years ago that "an American author was preparing to write on his life a book full of false and horrible things."—Now if somebody would ask Lady Byron we could get both sides of the story. But the matter is about settled already.

It is stated that the city of Havana, before the revolt of Yara, claimed 250,000 inhabitants. There are now, at the very outside figure, no more than 80,000 people there.—Thousands of Spanish merchants and traders have fled to Spain. Thousands of wealthy Cubans have gone to New York, New Orleans, Baltimore, Mexico and Europe, while very many thousands of Cubans have drifted in to the interior to join the Cuban army. Not only have men gone, but at least 15,000 ladies have also left Havana for different towns of the interior. It is estimated that there are now 10,000 empty houses in the city.

A Boston chemist advertises thus: "The gentleman who left his stomach for analysis, will please call and get it together with the results."

Delaware is a small State and is growing smaller. The Delaware encroaches upon it four to twenty feet every year, and the sites of houses that once stood in the midst of fields are now under water. The Lighthouse near Bowers' Beach has been removed three times, and a small hotel on the same beach that once stood in the midst of cultivated grounds a considerable distance from the bay with large trees in front of it, has its walls now washed by the waters.

Shooting in Kinston.—Wm. White an old resident of Kinston, went to his cotton house Thursday night, where he found several men, whom he thinks were colored, stealing his cotton. As soon as he made his appearance they shot at him, and thirty seven shots entered his body, but as yet he is living and may recover. We are informed, and are sorry to learn it, that up to this time Sheriff Hunter has made no attempts to ferret out the perpetrators of the foul deed.—Newbern Times.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

OHIO.

Cincinnati, Sept. 27.—Seventy masked men took a negro from the Lancaster, Gerrard County (Ky.) Jail and hanged him. The same parties whipped Sutton and Hutchinson and ordered them to leave the County. Gen. Williams, who has been made a public character in connection with the Virginia Senatorship, has been misrepresentated. He would accept (of course he would) the position as the choice of the people of Virginia, but has never represented himself as the choice of Gen. Grant. If he should come to the Senate, he desires to come as the chosen Representative of the Legislature for Virginia.

Fish and Delano will return during the latter part of the week.

Applications for office addressed to the Executive will, hereafter, receive no consideration; they must go to Heads of Departments.

Buffalo Sept. 27.—Prince Arthur, Governor-General of Canada, and suite, visited Buffalo today, and lunched with Mr. Fillmore, at the Tift House.

New York, Sept. 27.—Admiral Poor has departed for Key West, in the "Powhattan."

The Supreme Court issued a number of injunctions against the Gold Exchange Bank, and several Wall Street Brokers.

The dead lock in the Gold Exchange Bank continues and causes much embarrassment. There were no transactions in the Gold Board in consequence, and after ineffectually endeavoring to obtain statements of Thursday's and Friday's business from the Gold Exchange, the Bank Board adjourned until to-morrow.

Several injunctions have been issued by the Courts restraining the Gold Exchange Bank from paying over deposits and checks which tend to complicate affairs and retard settlements. Suits have been commenced by attachments against Alexander Bellien, Alexander McKinley and G. W. Hooker for secreting property to defraud creditors.

Chas. Callider, National Bank Examiner, declares that every National Bank in the city, including the Tenth National Bank are sound and Conservatively managed.

The money market became much easier in the afternoon, and at close of call loans were freely supplied at 7, currency to gold. Gold quotations during the stoppage of the Board, are more or less nominal; street prices during the day varied from 1,31½ to 1,33, closing at 34 to 32. Exchange quiet and firm, but quotations nominal at 8. Stocks improved at first with the easiness of money, but closed lower and unsettled.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the BASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are so-tured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1869. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

Knickerbocker,	$16,54
Equitable,	17,44

The National,	23,48
The Ætna,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 598 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 15,527 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

THE EARTHQUAKE IN SOUTH AMERICA.

From the west coast of South America the intelligence in connection with the predictions of the German astronomer, Fiah, is more startling than we were prepared to expect. From almost every part of the coast of Peru we hear of a succession of earthquakes, which, in point of frequency and force are only second to the appalling convulsions of August, 1868. At Arica, on the 16th ult., not less than forty shocks of earthquake occurred within the twenty-four hours, causing extreme terror to the inhabitants, and obliging many to flee from the city to the interior. On the night of the 20th, at 10:30, a terrific movement of the earth took place, almost rivaling the fearful shocks of last year. Later during the same night and the following morning less violent shocks occurred at frequent intervals, accompanied by successive subterranean noises which struck additional alarm into the already terrified people.—Up to the latest date (the 22d ult.) Arica and the surrounding country was in an almost perpetual state of movement either oscillatory or undulatory, and more than half the families had fled to the neighboring valleys.

The City of Tacna, besides experiencing an incredible number of earthquakes previous to the 20th, was, on the night of that day, visited by a similar shock to that which took place at Arica ten minutes later. The citizens fled to the public squares and took refuge in the widest streets, erecting temporary huts in which to await with comparative safety the threatened sequel to the previous alarming indications.

At Tarapaca and Iquique earthquakes had been also unusually numerous and severe, causing the same excessive alarm and terror amongst the inhabitants. Asequipa also, amongst the many earthquakes it has lately chronicled, makes particular mention of three unusually violent shocks on the night of the 20th, rivalling in force, so says the Belas of that city, the convulsions of the memorable 13th of August, 1868. There—as in lesly and nearly every Peruvian city and seaport—the utmost terror prevails, caused principally by the inquietude of the earth, but intensified by the prognostications of Fiah, which are to a certain extent considered by many to be partially verified, notwithstanding the slight discrepancy of dates.

Much alarm has been occasioned in Lima and Callao by the news of earthquakes from the seaports and cities of Southern Peru, but up to the latest dates no very considerable shocks have occurred at either place. Nevertheless, much of the consternation prevalent in the south is shared by the inhabitants of the capital, and its port, so much so that many, including foreigners, are making preparations to be absent at the time that Mr. Fiah's predictions are expected to be verified. It is observable that notwithstanding the violence of some of the numerous shocks of earthquake which have recently taken place in Peru, no corresponding movement of the sea has occurred similar to that of 1868. In the southern ports of Chile, however, notably Talcahuano and Tome, the tides for three or four days were observed to be in a most unsettled state running in and out most irregularly, and receding and advancing as much as two or three times within an hour.

For the Sentinel.

At a meeting of the Directors of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, held on the 31st day of August last, I was elected President. On the next day a drawing was advertised to take place on the 19th day of November, 1869, and my name published as President. This advertisement was made without consultation with me, and before the affairs of the Company had been looked into. Upon examining into them, I discovered that the assets were not sufficient to justify the announcement, and I immediately called a meeting of the Stockholders for the 16th day of September. At the meeting of the Stockholders on that day, I stated the condition of the affairs of the Company, as well as I could ascertain them from the books as I found them. The following resolutions were therefore adopted:

Resolved, That the President appoint a Committee of three to examine the books and papers of the Company, and ascertain, if possible, what disposition has been made of its funds.

The Committee under the resolution reported that they had not sufficient time for a thorough examination, and offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President be directed to employ two competent men to examine thoroughly into the affairs of the Company; to ascertain and report what disposition has been made of its funds; to put its present books into the best possible condition, and to open a new set of books upon such a system as shall secure the affairs of the Company from confusion hereafter.

This was amended so as to allow the President to appoint a third person, to be employed for not more than five days; and thus amended, passed.

The Chairman of the Committee also offered the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Stockholders are due, and are hereby tendered, to R. G. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer of the Company, for the faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties.

This was adopted, and it was then further

Resolved, That the Board of Directors be requested to make an assessment of three per cent. upon the stock of the Company, to be paid as follows: one per cent. within 15 days, and two per cent. on the 15th of October next.

Resolved, further, That the Stockholders who have already made payments of cash upon their stock, be allowed credit to the amount of such payments, upon this assessment, and if this assessment be not sufficient to meet the liabilities of the Company, the Board of Directors shall increase the assessment until it be sufficient.

Resolved, That the President is hereby requested to enquire into the matter of money paid to J. G. Hester, the late President, at Wilmington, for tickets and stock sold there, and to require the said J. G. Hester to pay said money to the Treasurer, or to account for it.

After the adjournment of the Stockholders, a meeting of the Board of Directors was called for Saturday the 18th inst. At this meeting, the following Directors, with the President attended: Robert G. Lewis Esq., and Messrs. J. G. Hester, J. C. Hester and Wesley Whitaker. After the proceedings of the Stockholders were read, R. G. Lewis Esq., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That an assessment of three per cent. on the stock sold, be made—that one per cent of the same be paid on the 1st of October, one per cent on the 15th of October, and one per cent on the 30th of October.

Resolved, Further, that the Stockholders who have already made payments of cash upon their stock, be allowed credit to amount of such payments, upon this assessment. Mr. J. G Hester moved to amend by striking out all after the words "30th of October," and inserting the following:

Resolved, Further that the provisions of this resolution shall not apply to the stock sold by the late President in Wilmington, upon which 10 per cent was paid." This was accepted by Mr. Lewis, and the resolution, after discussion, passed.

The public can see from this action of the Stockholders, as well as of the Directors, that steps are being taken to raise money sufficient to place the Company upon a sound footing. I assure the public that every proper means in my power, as an individual, and as an officer of the Company, will be resorted to, to put right the affairs of the Company, and save those who have taken tickets from loss. No scheme will be advertised until this is accomplished, and then parties holding tickets can have the option to take money or exchange them for others. I feel a deep personal interest in the getting of the affairs of the Company straight, in addition to the interest I feel as an officer. My name was connected with it as one of the supervisors after the first drawing. While so acting I had no interest in the Company, and my only duty was to see that the drawings were fairly conducted, and I can assure the public that they were.

Very recently, before my election as President, I purchased some stock, but never knew anything of the financial condition of the Company until after my election.
